

Molting is the process that crabs use to grow. They shed their shell and reveal a new bigger shell, that feels soft to the touch. Every time Bobby molts, he gets bigger. Peetie the Pelican likes to eat friends of the estuary, like soft shell crabs. "Bobby, look out!"